

CONSTRUCTION CLEAN-UP COMPANY

Exceptional Growth - Idaho Location

THE COMPANY

Touted as one of “the” top providers for commercial and residential construction cleanup services, the company has service agreement contracts with major construction companies. The unique equipment is designed specifically for large scale industrial projects. Due to the national growth expectations in Idaho, the need for this industrial service continues to demonstrate exceptional growth. Specific services being provided by this Company include construction cleanup, environmental reductions and general final construction completion projects, large and small.

THE LOCATION

The business is currently located in Idaho’s Canyon County.

THE ASSETS

This is a “turn-key” operation to include reasonable transition assistance from the owners. Assets include both tangible and intangible assets used or emphasized in the contracts as well as direct services. Financial information for 2017 is divided between the new owners and the previous corporation. Included in the overall information package is a bank lending appraisal as of 2017.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

The company was purchased in 2017 and the new owners have found that the growth and demands of the company are more than they have expected. They wish to sell for family and personal reasons.

THE IDEAL BUYER

The ideal buyer would be owners or operators of similar heavy industrial services or partnerships with skills and time to further develop and run this enterprise.
