

FRANCHISE PAINTING COMPANY

Boise, Idaho

THE OPPORTUNITY

This is a national franchise located in Boise, Idaho that started in 2013 with territory that includes most of Ada County. The operation can be considered “home-based” with limited need for off-site storage for inventory. The company provides services in the following areas: house and commercial painting, deck staining and wall paper removal services. The commitment to the customers is a service orientation that carries through to the final project completion. Franchise support comes from web site and national inquiries that transcend into new customers in this growing business.

THE LOCATION

This home-based operation covers specific zip-coded areas within Ada County.

THE ASSETS INCLUDED

This is a turnkey offering including all tangible assets. A new owner will be required to apply for the franchise rights. The transfer fee is not included in the offering price. Price includes inventory (paint, equipment) as well as some negotiable accounts receivable.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

The Owner is considering retirement and feels he has developed the business to a point where a new owner should be considered.
