

SCREEN PRINTING BUSINESS

Boise, Idaho

THE COMPANY

Established in 2017, this company specializes in custom printed apparel for schools, teams, clubs, businesses and events. The shop features brand new, highly rated equipment: eight-color four-station press, conveyor dryer, flash dryer, vacuum exposure unit, 24" blackout printer, 24" plotter, t-shirt transfer press, cap transfer press, and a wash out booth.

THE LOCATION

The business is centrally located in Boise, Idaho. The space is approximately 1,300 square feet and includes two offices, a dark room, bathroom, a production floor, and space to work with customers. The lease is very favorable at $1,000 on a month-to-month basis.

THE STRENGTHS

The business has an established website with a solid reputation and favorable online reviews. The company has grown mostly organically through word-of-mouth and referrals.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

The owners have other business interests and don't have the time to operate and continue to grow sales.

THE IDEAL BUYER

The ideal buyer should have a creative mind and enjoy working with their hands to provide a custom printed product. Being customer service oriented will facilitate being able to build a successful business.

THE POSSIBILITIES

The equipment is in place and the platform has been set for someone to hit the ground running. This is a great start-up opportunity to grow a successful screenprinting business. Especially when you consider the size of the market and the diverse customer base.
