

INTERIOR DESIGN / REMODELING COMPANY

Treasure Valley, Idaho

THE COMPANY

In business for six years, this interior design and remodeling company offers interior design for residential new build and remodeling clients along with consulting for commercial clients. Services range from entire houses or specific rooms. In addition, they provide installation/subcontracting management, furnishing services, shipping services, and re-sell furnishing pieces. Clients are located in Boise, Garden City, Eagle and Meridian. They currently provide approximately 20 projects per year. There are full-time owners running the business.

THE LOCATION

There is currently a small 187 square foot office space with a month-to-month lease. A new owner could continue using this space or easily convert to a home-based business.

THE STRENGTHS

The owners have developed strong client relationships built on trust and high performance in delivering as promised. There are several strong vendor and subcontractor relationships where many referrals come from. In addition, they have strong name recognition throughout the Treasure Valley. They also have the ability to work across a wide range of budgets and project scopes. There is an efficiently integrated design software included that works seamlessly with QuickBooks.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

Sellers would like to pursue other opportunities and turn this great business over to a new owner.

THE IDEAL BUYER

This would be a great opportunity for someone just starting out in the interior design business or for an established business to help grow sales.

THE POSSIBILITIES

With the growth in the Treasure Valley there is unlimited potential to expand this business with new clients and to add other offerings to the revenue mix. A new owner could also team up with many remodeling contractors in the Treasure Valley.
