

FLOOR COVERING COMPANY

Intermountain West Location

THE COMPANY

This family owned flooring business was established in 1995 with a simple mission: provide every home and business with high-quality flooring that is functional and looks great. The Company offers a full range of products and services, including carpet, hardwood, laminate, vinyl, tile, and custom flooring solutions. For over three decades, the Company has built a strong reputation in the geographic area for its craftsmanship, integrity, and customer service. Blending tradition with innovation the Company offers modern products and professional installation; delivering a unique blend of "old-school" service and modern solutions.

THE LOCATION

The business operates from a highly visible location on a major arterial, with excellent exposure, easy access and ample parking. The facility includes an attractive showroom and warehouse space of approximately 9,427 square feet. The freestanding building leases for $3,250 per month.

THE STRENGTHS

For over 30 years the business and their employees have ensured customers receive personalized service and expert craftsmanship. Whether it is a small residential project or large commercial development, clients know they can count on the Company and its skilled, passionate team to complete the project and stand behind their work. Quality, honesty and customer service are pillars of the Company, along with proven systems and processes that result in repeat business and long-term relationships.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

The Ownership is ready to transition the business to a new generation, retire and spend more time with family and personal interests.

THE IDEAL BUYER

The ideal buyer would be a strategic purchaser looking to expand market share or a Company with synergistic products looking to diversify. An Owner/Operator with experience in flooring, construction or home services would be a great fit.

THE POSSIBILITIES

Currently, there is little to no investment in marketing or advertising. A new owner could grow revenue by developing a professional website, social media and online advertising along with local marketing. The Company has a solid platform with significant upside potential.
